DEATHS.

BACON

Ellen Elizabeth, the fifteen-months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Bacon, died Tuesday morning of stomach complaint. The funeral occurred Wednesday at 10 a. m., after which the remains were laid to rest in Ridge Park cemetery. The bereft parents have the sympathy of the community.

JAMES HUSTON CAMPBELL
a well-known Marshall painter, died at his home in North Marshall Tuesday, July 24, at 1:30 p. m., of consumption, aged 55 years, 4 months and 10 days. He was bedfast about 8 months. Funeral services were held at the First M. E. Church Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Revs. Geo. W. Shepherd and O. S. Russell.

Mr. Campbell came to Marshall about 30 years ago, was married to Miss Nancy J. Thomas, who survives him, in 1878. He also leaves three brothers to mourn his death.

Big Picnic

Ehler Bros. gave their annual picnic at Little Rock last Friday. It was one of the events of East Saline and the crowd was a big one. This is the third picnic given by these hustling merchants and they have been conducted in a manner that make the picnics popular and enjoyable.

Woodmen Feast

The basket dinner and picnic given by the Modern Woodmen of America in Wilming's grove at Good Hope last Saturday was a very enjoyable affair. There was a large attendance from the surrounding country and enough good things to eat to feed an army. The Woodmen of Good Hope certainly covered themselves with glory and earned a reputation for hospitality that is hard to beat.

Ponderous Ponderosa

Shelt D. Houx, the shoe man, who resides on Prunswick, we believe is entitled to first honors as a tomato grower, at least in point of size and quality. He has on display at the store a Ponderosa tomato grown by himself weighing 2 lbs. 24 ozs. and which is 18 inches in circumference, and he says the quality is also the best. It is the largest tomato we have ever seen and until some one is able to "show" something to beat it, Mr. Houx may safely "toot his horn" as the champion.

FIVE GENERATIONS.

In our issue of July 6th, we published an account of Mrs. Eliza Shackelford's 89th birthday anniversary, which occurred at the home of Wm. Treece, at Cretcher, on June 28. At that time we promised a picture of the five generations, which we present herewith. Mrs. Eliza Shackelford, the great-great-grandmother, is seated with a Bible in her lap; to the left is Mrs. Wm. Treece, her daughter; and at the back of these two ladies stands Mrs. Frank Jones, granddaughter of Mrs. Treece; Hazel Jones, daughter of Mrs. Jones, stands to the right of Mrs. Shackelford; J. H. Treece standing beside Mrs. Jones, represents his sister, deceased, who was the mother of Mrs. Jones.

Rev. Rogers Drowned

Rev. S. E. Rogers, pastor of the Baptist Church at Nelson, was drowned at Pertle Springs Wednesday afternoon while bathing. He was seen by his companions to struggle when near the center of the lake, and sank. His companions were not expert swimmers and before the alarm could be given and a boat sent to his assistance the young minister drowned. The body was recovered by Rev. W. C. Coleman of Warrensburg but life was extinct. Rev. Rogers was 26 years old, and was reared near Santa Fe, Monroe county. He was a 1905 graduate of William Jewell college.

Dr. R. H. Nickles says yesterday was a big day in Marshall. The arrival of a 9 lb. girl at his home together with the fair made it a strenuous day for him.

who relieved him of his watch and $4 in money and the cash drawer of its contents, about $21.

The robbers questioned Fulkerson very closely about the combination of the safe, and satisfying themselves that he did not know it, they cut the telephone wires, smashed the telephone and bade him good-by.

Fulkerson was sending a message when the robbers first appeared, and the first intimation he had that any one was near was when a shot was fired through the ticket office window, shattering the glass. He turned to see the cause of the noise and found himself looking into the muzzle of a big revolver. The other robber, who had been stationed on the platform outside, then crawled through the bay window, pistol in hand, and searched Fulkerson while his confederate in the waiting room kept him covered with a revolver.

Fulkerson was unable to give any description of the robbers, who are thought to have been tramps, as a number of suspicious looking characters were seen about town yesterday.

Painfully Hurt

W. H. Mabrey, a prominent farmer south of Slater, had the misfortune of getting hurt in a runaway while threshing last week. A colored man stepped up on the engine and blew the whistle causing the team to run away, and he was piled up with the team in a ditch. He has been suffering considerably from internal injuries but we hope nothing serious will develop.

A boy arrived at Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Porter's Saturday.

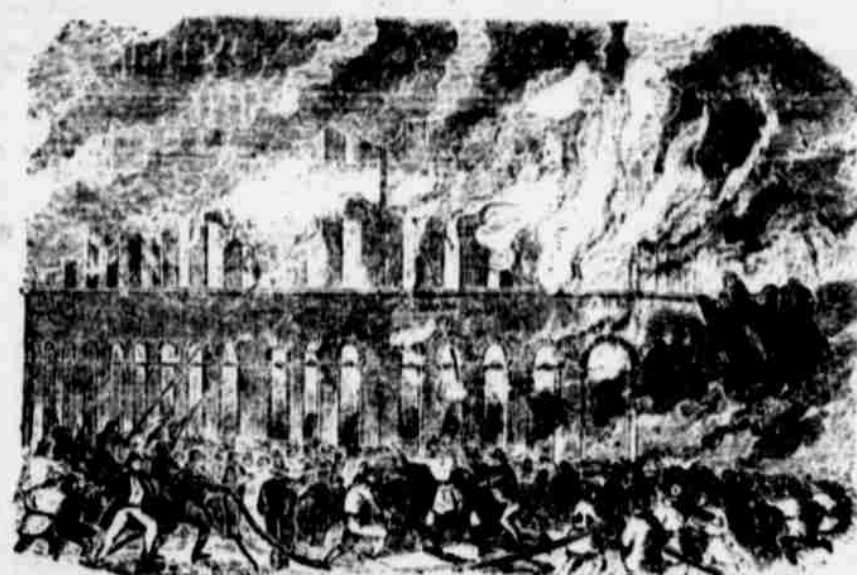

Go to Hanson's for your stationery—all kinds of fancy goods at reasonable prices.

J. P. Kurtz, of Sweet Springs, was delivering wheat here Wednesday. He received 65c per bushel.

N. R. Talbot is back from a six months' residence in Texas looking after his farm near Artesia. He likes Texas very much.

Adolph Heying, a hardware merchant of Glasgow, was a Marshall visitor Monday. He is also operating the sand boat at Glasgow in which Charlie Parent has an interest.

Chief Hale's Fire Fighters will be in Marshall next Monday. Those who enjoyed seeing this attraction at the World's Fair will be given an opportunity of seeing it again. It was one of the Fair's best shows.
